RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

The committee from L. S. Ross Chapter beg leave to submit the following:

Whereas, death has claimed another of our members, Mrs. Lillian Carr Mondrick from the local chapter roll, U. D. C., and

Whereas, we, as daughters of L. S. Ross Chapter, feel in her removal we have lost a true and sympathetic member, always willing to help in this beautiful cause, a noble example of true Southern womanhood, and

Whereas, we realize that Mrs. Mondrick through her young life was a devoted and loyal member, therefore be it

Resolved, That we will cherish the record of such a life full of life and deserving energy; that sincere sympathy is offered from L. S. Ross Chapter, U. D. C., to each member of the grief-stricken family; that to her daughter and darling boys, Robert and William, and the devoted husband, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. May the memory of other days soften the pangs of this earthly separation until death claims them all, and may their lonely hearts be touched by His hand, who alone is able to soothe and sustain.

MRS. J. W. DOREMUS,
MRS. A. B. CARR,
MRS. M. PARKER.

SHIPPED HORSES TO FT. WORTH.

Geo. D. Tucker, formerly proprietor of the Tucker Livery Barn, which burned in this city several months ago, shipped his stock of buggies, and fourteen head of horses to Fort Worth last night, where he has gone to sell them. Mr. Tucker sold the major portion of his livery equipment to C. C. Shelburne, liveryman of this city, just after the Tucker stables burned, and at the time signed an agreement not to re-enter the livery business in Bryan. His many friends will be glad to learn that he will remain a resident of Bryan.
